

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2341 - SB 2323

March 9, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Revises the boards which receive support from the Division of Health Related Boards by removing the Board of Medical Examiners Council on Respiratory Care and adds the Board of Medical Examiners Committee for Clinical Examination, Board of Medical Examiners Advisory Council on Acupuncture, Board of Osteopathic Examination Committee of Certified Professional Midwifery, and Board of Respiratory Care.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

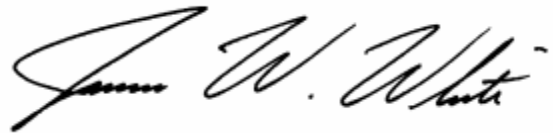

Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The profession of respiratory care has its own regulatory board.
- The additional regulatory entities are established statutorily and attached to the Division of Health Related Boards.
- All Health Related Boards, by statute, are self supporting such that revenues equal expenditures.
